

Rock Creek Conservation Corps Media Intern

Position Focus/Title: Media Intern- Rock Creek Conservation Corps (RC3)

Position Description: Opportunity to work with a small non-profit watershed group. This position will be responsible for producing and managing Facebook content for the Rock Creek Conservation Corps. Rock Creek Conservation Corps, or "RC3," is a summer youth conservation program that helps protect and revitalize Rock Creek and its parklands while providing transformative experiences to youth and empowering non-traditional leaders in conservation to develop and sustain a culture of environmental stewardship for future generations. Candidate would need to use his/her own laptop, cell phone, and vehicle. Candidate will have access to RCC's camera to take pictures. This is an unpaid position.

The ideal candidate will be someone:

- Competent in creating Facebook and other social media content
- Experienced in capturing high quality photographs at an amateur level
- Interested in empowering youth to be environmental stewards
- Sensitive to diverse communities and non-traditional leaders in conservation
- Knowledgeable about watershed issues in Rock Creek

Requested Start Date: June 19th 2017

Hours per week: 20-35 hours per week

Pay: This is an unpaid position

Duration: Negotiable depending on candidate, 5 weeks minimum preferred.

Contact: Erica Carlsson, ecarlsson@rockcreekconservancy.org, 301.579.3105